To whom It May Concern

I recently made the decision to end my business and did not realize the amount of inventory and furnishings I had on hand. I approached Asset Liquidation & Sales and asked for assistance through this somewhat difficult and trying time, Dave Humes came forward and eased me through the process. With his experience and caring attitude along with his dedication to complete the task I was able to liquidate most of my assets. Dave even assisted me in locating a buyer for assets we could not liquidate.

Dave's professionalism and caring attitude and willingness to go to the enth degree to complete the task is a definite plus. He was on time and on schedule and we liquidated in a timely manner.

I would highly recommend the services provided by Asset Liquidation & Sales.

Sincerely,
